On Friday, eminent painters and critics, assembled at a city gallery for the inauguration of a solo exhibition by painter Samit Dey. We spotted Siddhartha Ghosh, Hiran Mitra, Nanak Ganguly, Samir Roy, Tapas Konar and a host of other personalities. "It's not possible to work fast. Each painting demands a lot of thought, time and dedication," said Dey. Some of his paintings, like Broken Vectors and Soliloquy in Black were highly appreciated by those present.
